

DEBBIE MEGGS

Hello! My name is Debbie Meggs, and I'm a member of John Knox Presbyterian Church. I earned a B.S. degree in Elementary Education from Francis Marion University. I taught in the public school system for four years up until I had children of my own. I was able to stay home with my children during their formative years before starting on the PDO hall at John Knox. I then moved over to the kindergarten hall after my last child graduated from JKK, and I taught K-4 for 20 years. I'm now retired from teaching, but I still visit and enjoy John Knox Kindergarten as a substitute and floater.
